Program Ad Application

Lutheran Association for Special Education (LASE) has a heart for helping children who learn differently reach their God-given potential. LASE is a non-profit 501c organization that partners with parents and schools to provide solution-focused special education expertise in a Christian setting. LASE strives to teach the whole child utilizing individualized and specialized learning solutions.

Herald the Holidays annually hosts 300+ LASE supporters and guests for this fundraising event. They include customers who frequent businesses in our community. LASE would appreciate the opportunity to promote your business in our program booklet or share an encouraging message with our students. If you've advertised with us previously, we thank you and ask that you kindly repeat your support for our incredible LASE kids again this year. Your ad partnership with LASE helps fund opportunities that positively impact the lives of our students with special education needs.

Your donation may be tax deductible. Please keep a copy of this form for your records. LASE is a 501 (c) tax-exempt organization.
